Program Disclosures

Does the program or institution require students, trainees, and/or staff (faculty) to comply with specific policies or practices related to the institution's affiliation or purpose? Such policies or practices may include, but are not limited to, admissions, hiring, retention policies, and/or requirements for completion that express mission and values?	__X___ Yes
	_____ No

If yes, provide website link (or content from brochure) where this specific information is presented:

Northwest Nazarene Univeristy (NNU) is a non-profit Christian university grounded in the Wesleyan-Holiness tradition and is in partnership with the Church of the Nazarene. The university acts to ensure a supportive and encouraging learning environment appropriate for the training of individuals who are diverse and the provision of training opportunities for a broad spectrum of individuals. Students are not required to endorse any type of faith statement. Faculty and staff of the university, however, are required to sign and adhere to a statement of lifestyle standards and promotion of "NNU's statement of faith".

For more information on NNU's statement of faith, please see the following link:

Also, please describe or provide a link to program admissions policies that allow students to enter with credit for prior graduate work, and the expected implications for time to completion. Please indicate NA if not applicable:

Up to 11 units of prior graduate coursework in a related field may be transferred into the NNU PsyD program for specific courses, subject to approval by the Program Director. While the transfer of these units will allow for part-time attendance in the student's first year, no amount of transfer units will reduce the five-year timeline for Program completion.

For more information about the program's transfer credit policy, please see the following link:
